

ing group. More and more of us are getting past sixty-five.

I think the constitution perhaps ought to run through a long list of special groups of people and set forth certain constitutional rights.

It seems to me that we would be well advised to support this amendment.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sollins, do you desire to speak in opposition?

DELEGATE SOLLINS: I move the previous question.

THE PRESIDENT: The motion to order the previous question has been duly seconded.

The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The question arises on the motion to order the previous question on the adoption of Amendment No. 5. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of ordering the previous question. A vote No is a vote against.

All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No.

The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 5. The vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted?

Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 61 votes in the affirmative and 55 in the negative, the motion is carried. The amendment is adopted.

DELEGATE HARRIS: Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Harris.

DELEGATE HARRIS: In reaching over and pushing my button, inadvertently I pushed it wrong. I had some cough drops here. I voted for the amendment, and I wish to be recorded as voting against.

(Laughter.)

THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk.

Delegate Harris is recorded as voting against and not in favor. The tally is 60 votes in the affirmative; 56 votes in the negative. The motion is carried. The amendment is adopted.

I take it, Delegate Hostetter, you do not desire to offer your Amendment M?

DELEGATE HOSTETTER: That is correct, sir, I do not.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Scanlan, you do not desire to offer your Amendment W or any version of it?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: No, I do not.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Marvin Smith, you do not desire to offer your Amendment P?

DELEGATE MARVIN SMITH: No, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: And Delegate Kiefer, your amendment becomes inappropriate.

Delegate Beatrice Miller.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, I would ask, and I do not know how to do this parliamentarily, but I would ask at some point before we conclude this section that there be reconsideration. I think there were points that were not made in consideration of this, and it is far too important to take it just on this vote.

THE PRESIDENT: You are speaking of reconsideration of the vote just taken?

DELEGATE B. MILLER: Yes, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: It is in order now if you desire to make the motion.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: I would prefer to wait a few minutes. I think the point was made that some people were not here. I would rather wait until later in the afternoon, if possible.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well. Keep in mind that if the motion is made before action on this recommendation, it need not lay over. If it comes after that time, it must lay over for two days under the rule.

DELEGATE B. MILLER: I would like to make the motion to reconsider before we take action on the entire proposal.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

Delegate Key, you have indicated to the Chair that you desire to move to reconsider the vote by which Amendment No. 1 was passed. Do you desire to do that at this time?

DELEGATE KEY: Yes, I do.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Key desires to move to reconsider the vote by which Amendment No. 1 was adopted. Is there a second?
